Additional comments:

Develop Transparent and Accountable Relationships

PRINCIPLE: Fair Trade involves relationships that are open, fair, consistent, respectful, and value an equitable distribution of power. Members are transparent with customers and producers about their supply chains by sharing information about the entire trading chain through honest and proactive communication. They create mechanisms to actively involve producers and customers in the trading chain. If problems arise, members work cooperatively with fair trade partners and other organizations to implement solutions.

*Do farmer/producer partners know about your organization's FTF membership?

Yes No

*If yes, describe how this information is shared. If no, explain why.

*By what method(s) does your business maintain contact with farmer/producer partners?

*How often does your business' staff communicate with farmer/producer partners?

*Does your business have secure method(s) for individual farmers/producers to contact you directly with concerns or grievances?

Yes No

*If yes, describe. If no, explain why.

*How does your business communicate major changes in buying patterns to farmer/producer partners?

*How does your organization incorporate information about its supply chain into communications with customers?

*Describe the way(s) in which your business helps facilitate and/or encourage a diversity of partnerships for farmer/producer partners.

*Does your business establish exclusive contracts?

Yes No

*If yes, explain what they stipulate, why you use them, and how farmer/producer partners are part of the contract creation process. If no, write n/a.

Ensure the Rights of Children

PRINCIPLE: Fair trade means that all children have the right to security, education, and play. Throughout the trading chain, FTF Members respect and support the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child, as well as local laws and social norms. Members disclose the involvement of children in production, and recognize that individuals often pass down their skillsets and traditions through generations, so there may be circumstances in which children are involved in production. Members have open communication with suppliers/producers about ways children may be involved and ensure that this does not conflict with educational opportunities when this occurs. Members do not support or in any way enable child trafficking or exploitative child labor.

*Describe how your organization determines whether persons under the age of 18 are involved in any part of the process with farmer/producer partners.

*Are any individuals under the age of eighteen involved in the growth/harvest/processing of goods your organization purchases?

Yes No

*If yes, please describe their role in production in detail. If no, write n/a.

*If so, how does your organization determine children involved in production are not given hazardous tasks and are secure, enrolled in school, and have time for their studies as well as play? If no, write n/a.

How often* does your organization evaluate children's roles in growth/harvest/processing?

*How does your organization ensure farmer/producer partners comply with local laws and your expectations about child labor? Please check all that apply:

- Written agreement
- Verbal agreement
- In-person visits
- Other If other, please describe:

*Does your organization employ individuals under the age of sixteen in the USA or Canada?

Yes No

*If yes, describe their role(s) and how your business ensures this does not interfere with educational opportunities. If no, write n/a.
