The Code of Practice states, “members share processes and techniques used by suppliers/artisans/producer groups to create their products, as well as producers’ stories, when accompanied by informed consent. Members understand that consent is fluid, and regularly check in with producer groups to ensure their safety and understanding of where any individual images or story elements are being used.”

*Do the businesses you source from currently obtain consent from individual suppliers/artisans/producer partners to share any of their personal information before it is shared?

Yes No

*If yes, describe. If not, explain why.

*Do the businesses you source from explain the different methods and media by which an artisan/producer’s information could be shared, the potential reach it may have, and the amount of time for which that information may be publicly available, when obtaining consent to share personal stories, images, etc.? If yes, describe how. If not, explain why.

*After obtaining consent initially, do the businesses you source from ever check in with producer groups to ensure their safety and understanding of where any individual images or story elements are being used? Describe.

*Describe the way(s) in which your business plans to update and improve methods of confirming obtaining and maintaining consent from suppliers/producer partners within the next year.

Additional comments:

Develop Transparent and Accountable Relationships

PRINCIPLE: Fair Trade involves relationships that are open, fair, consistent, respectful, and value an equitable distribution of power. Members are transparent with customers and producers about their supply chains by sharing information about the entire trading chain through honest and proactive communication. They create mechanisms to actively involve producers and customers in the trading chain. If problems arise, members work cooperatively with fair trade partners and other organizations to implement solutions.

*How many wholesale suppliers does your business purchase from on a regular basis?

*How does your business communicate major changes in buying patterns with your wholesale suppliers?

*Describe how your business shares financial and business practices with other fair trade organizations.

*Provide a detailed example of how your wholesale suppliers build transparency into their trading relationships with suppliers/artisans/producer partners.

*How does your organization incorporate information about fair trade practices, its supplier/producer partners, and/or individual supplier/artisan/producers' stories into communication with customers?

Ensure the Rights of Children

PRINCIPLE: Fair trade means that all children have the right to security, education, and play. Throughout the trading chain, FTF Members respect and support the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child, as well as local laws and social norms. Members disclose the involvement of children in production, and recognize that individuals often pass down their skillsets and traditions through generations, so there may be circumstances in which children are involved in production. Members have open communication with suppliers/producers about ways children may be involved and ensure that this does not conflict with educational opportunities when this occurs. Members do not support or in any way enable child trafficking or exploitative child labor.

*Describe how your organization determines whether persons under the age of 18 are involved in any part of the process with supplier/producer partners.

*Are any individuals under the age of eighteen involved in production with any supplier/producer partners you source from?

- Yes
- No

*If yes, please describe their role in production in detail. If no, write n/a.

*If yes, how does your organization determine if children involved in production are enrolled in school and have time for their studies as well as play?

*How often does your organization evaluate children's roles in production with supplier/producer partners?

*How does your organization ensure artisan/producer partners comply with local laws and your expectations about child labor? Please check all that apply:

- Written agreement
- Verbal agreement
- In-person visits
- Other If other, please describe:

*Does your organization employ individuals under the age of sixteen in the USA or Canada?

- Yes
- No

*If yes, describe their role(s) and how your business ensures this does not interfere with educational opportunities. If no, write n/a.
